

Celebrating Solutions Awards Call for Nominations

The Mary Byron Foundation's Celebrating Solutions Awards honor innovative programs that demonstrate promise in breaking the cycle of domestic violence. We select programs that can serve as models for the nation and offer cash awards of $10,000 in recognition of their pioneering efforts. These are awards for accomplishments, not grants for future projects. Recipients are not required to render any further services as a condition of receiving a Celebrating Solutions Award.

The awards are presented annually. In general, the Mary Byron Foundation chooses four winners each year, yet reserves the right to choose fewer. Institutions that have applied in previous years are welcome to do so again.

Eligibility criteria:

- Both the nominated program and the institution must have been operating for a minimum of three years.
- The program must address the issue of domestic violence.
- The program must be part of a non-profit 501(c) (3) or government agency.
- The program should be replicable, or if it is national in scope, the program should have applications for individual communities, regardless of their size or ethnic population.

Not eligible for Celebrating Solutions Awards are:

- Past Celebrating Solutions Award winners.
- Organizations other than non-profit or governmental.
- Organizations operating outside the United States or a U.S. territory.
- Individuals.
- Basic research.

There are two stages to the awards process. Stage one requires submission of a nomination. If your nomination advances to the second stage, you will be asked to provide additional information and letters of support. Do not send brochures, videos, annual reports, or any support materials for the first round of judging, as they will be discarded.

Nominations are judged by a panel of experts in criminal justice, health care, and public policy. These individuals remain anonymous so their ability to judge the nominations will not be influenced by a relationship with a nominated organization.

To nominate your organization for the Celebrating Solutions Award, mail three collated copies of the completed nomination to:

Celebrating Solutions Awards
Mary Byron Foundation
10401 Linn Station Road
Louisville, KY 40223

Please remember:

- Complete all sections of the nomination form.
- Include page numbers at the top right corner of each page.
- Use paper clips, not staples, to separate the three collated copies.
- If you want an acknowledgement that your nomination was received, please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your mailing.
- Any staff member, board member, volunteer, or community supporter may nominate an institution for a Celebrating Solutions Award. However, we ask that only one contact person be designated by the institution.
- We strongly recommend reviewing nominations by past winners. These are available on our website at www.marybyronfoundation.org/work_solutions.html.

All nominations must be postmarked by October 5, 2007. E-mail and fax submissions will not be accepted.

Please direct questions to information@marybyronfoundation.org with "Celebrating Solutions Award" in the subject line. No telephone calls, please.
